

Nadia Shpachenko Bios, July 2026 (different lengths)

Long Bio (545 Words)

GRAMMY® Award-winning Ukrainian-American pianist Nadia Shpachenko enjoys bringing into the world things that are outside the box - powerful pieces that often possess unusual sonic qualities or instrumentation. Described as a “gifted and versatile pianist” (San Francisco Chronicle), “one of today’s foremost promoters of contemporary music” (Textura Magazine), and “a great friend and champion of new music” (Fanfare Magazine), Nadia performed recitals at Concertgebouw, Carnegie Hall, Disney Hall, on the Piano Spheres and Los Angeles Philharmonic’s Green Umbrella and Chamber Music Series, and with orchestras in Europe and the Americas. She premiered more than 150 works by Zoltan Almashi, Armando Bayolo, Elliott Carter, Christopher Cerrone, Paul Chihara, Ethan Gans-Morse, George Crumb, Ian Dicke, Daniel Felsenfeld, Tom Flaherty, Annie Gosfield, Yuri Ishchenko, Vera Ivanova, Gabriel Jenks, Dana Kaufman, Leon Kirchner, Amy Beth Kirsten, Sergii Leontiev, James Matheson, Missy Mazzoli, Harold Meltzer, Evgeni Orkin, Michael Roth, David Sanford, Isaac Schankler, Alexander Shchetynsky, Adam Schoenberg, Lewis Spratlan, Evan Ware, Gernot Wolfgang, Iannis Xenakis, Peter Yates, Ludmila Yurina, Pamela Z, Jack Van Zandt, and many others.

Described as “powerful... impressive... haunting” (Gramophone) and “the outstanding contemporary-music disc of the year” (Fanfare Magazine), Nadia’s Reference Recordings album Invasion: Music and Art for Ukraine was released on September 23, 2022. Invasion album features premiere recordings of solo and chamber music by Pulitzer Prize-winning composer Lewis Spratlan, as well as artworks by Ukrainian artists. 100% of proceeds from Invasion CD are donated to Ukraine humanitarian aid charities. On February 23, 2024 Nadia released Ukrainian composer Valentin Silvestrov’s Postludium No. 3 with cellist Matt Haimovitz on PENTATONE to commemorate the two-year anniversary of Russia’s invasion of Ukraine.

Nadia’s new Reference Recordings album Keys To The Beautiful Game was released on July 17, 2026, featuring premieres of soccer-inspired pieces for piano, voice, cleats, and electronics. Described as “superb... evocative... pure magic” (I Care If You Listen), Nadia’s 2019 Reference Recordings CD The Poetry of Places features premieres of solo and collaborative works inspired by architecture. The Poetry of Places album won the 62nd Best Classical Compendium GRAMMY® Award. “Sure to remain a mainstay of the contemporary discography for posterity” (New Classic LA), Nadia’s 2018 Reference Recordings CD Quotations and Homages features premieres of solo and collaborative works for 6 pianists inspired by a variety of earlier composers and pieces. Nadia’s Reference Recordings CD Woman at the New Piano: American Music of 2013 was nominated for 58th GRAMMY Awards® in 3 categories. She is also featured on Jack Van Zandt’s 2025 Neuma Records album The Chaos of Light and Motion, José Serebrier’s 2021 Reference Recordings album Last Tango Before Sunrise, Wouter Kellerman’s 2021 South African Music Award winning album We’ve Known All Times, Isaac Schankler’s 2019 Aerocade Music album Because Patterns, Gernot Wolfgang’s 2019 Albany Records album Vienna and the West, and Genevieve Vincent’s 2018 Mano Walker EP Petit Rêve.

Nadia Shpachenko is Professor of Music at Cal Poly Pomona University, where she leads the Piano Performance program and was awarded the 2017 Provost’s Award for Excellence in Scholarly and Creative Activities. Born in Kharkiv, Ukraine, Nadia completed her DMA and MM degrees at the University of Southern California, where she was awarded the title of Outstanding Graduate. Her principal teachers included John Perry, Victor Rosenbaum, and Victor Derevianko. Nadia Shpachenko is a Steinway Artist.

Medium Bio (362 Words)

A “gifted and versatile pianist” (San Francisco Chronicle) and GRAMMY® Award winner Nadia Shpachenko enjoys bringing into the world things that are outside the box - powerful pieces that often possess unusual sonic qualities or instrumentation. Nadia’s concert highlights include recitals at Concertgebouw, Carnegie Hall, Disney Hall, on the Piano Spheres and Los Angeles Philharmonic’s Green Umbrella and Chamber Music Series, and with orchestras in Europe and the Americas. An enthusiastic promoter of contemporary music, Shpachenko premiered more than 150 works by Zoltan Almashi, Armando Bayolo, Elliott Carter, Christopher Cerrone, Paul Chihara, Ethan Gans-Morse, George Crumb, Ian Dicke, Daniel Felsenfeld, Tom Flaherty, Annie Gosfield, Yuri Ishchenko, Vera Ivanova, Gabriel Jenks, Dana Kaufman, Leon Kirchner, Amy Beth Kirsten, Sergii Leontiev, James Matheson, Missy Mazzoli, Harold Meltzer, Evgeni Orkin, Michael Roth, David Sanford, Isaac Schankler, Alexander Shchetynsky, Adam Schoenberg, Lewis Spratlan, Evan Ware, Gernot Wolfgang, Iannis Xenakis, Peter Yates, Ludmila Yurina, Pamela Z, Jack Van Zandt, and many others.

Nadia’s new Reference Recordings album Keys To The Beautiful Game was released on July 17, 2026, featuring premieres of soccer-inspired pieces for piano, voice, cleats, and electronics. Nadia’s 2019 Reference Recordings album The Poetry of Places, featuring premieres of architecture-inspired works, won the Best Classical Compendium GRAMMY® Award. Described as “powerful... impressive... haunting” (Gramophone), Nadia’s album Invasion: Music and Art for Ukraine features premiere recordings of music by Pulitzer Prize-winning composer Lewis Spratlan and art by numerous Ukrainian artists, with 100% of proceeds donated to Ukraine humanitarian aid. On February 23, 2024 Nadia released Ukrainian composer Valentin Silvestrov’s Postludium No. 3 with cellist Matt Haimovitz on PENTATONE to commemorate the two-year anniversary of Russia’s invasion of Ukraine. She can be heard on eleven other internationally released albums of world premieres.

Nadia Shpachenko is Professor of Music at Cal Poly Pomona University, where she leads the Piano Performance program and was awarded the 2017 Provost’s Award for Excellence in Scholarly and Creative Activities. Born in Kharkiv, Ukraine, Nadia completed her DMA and MM degrees at the University of Southern California, where she was awarded the title of Outstanding Graduate. Her principal teachers included John Perry, Victor Rosenbaum, and Victor Derevianko. Nadia Shpachenko is a Steinway Artist.

Short Bio (262 Words)

A “gifted and versatile pianist” (San Francisco Chronicle) and GRAMMY® Award winner Nadia Shpachenko enjoys bringing into the world things that are outside the box—powerful pieces that often possess unusual sonic qualities or instrumentation. Nadia’s concert highlights include recitals at Concertgebouw, Carnegie Hall, Disney Hall, on the Piano Spheres and Los Angeles Philharmonic's Green Umbrella and Chamber Music Series, and with orchestras in Europe and the Americas. A passionate advocate for contemporary music, Shpachenko has premiered more than 150 new works by many of today's leading composers.

Nadia's new Reference Recordings album Keys To The Beautiful Game was released on July 17, 2026, featuring premieres of soccer-inspired pieces for piano, voice, cleats, and electronics. Nadia's 2019 Reference Recordings album The Poetry of Places, featuring premieres of architecture-inspired works, won the Best Classical Compendium GRAMMY® Award. Described as "powerful... impressive... haunting" (Gramophone), Nadia's album Invasion: Music and Art for Ukraine features premiere recordings of music by Pulitzer Prize-winning composer Lewis Spratlan and art by numerous Ukrainian artists, with 100% of proceeds donated to Ukraine humanitarian aid. On February 23, 2024 Nadia released Ukrainian composer Valentin Silvestrov's Postludium No. 3 with cellist Matt Haimovitz on PENTATONE to commemorate the two-year anniversary of Russia's invasion of Ukraine. She can be heard on eleven other internationally released albums of world premieres.

Nadia Shpachenko holds a Doctor of Musical Arts degree from the University of Southern California. Her principal teachers included John Perry, Victor Rosenbaum, and Victor Derevianko. Born in Kharkiv, Ukraine, she is a Steinway Artist and professor of music at Cal Poly Pomona University.

Very Short Bio (230 Words)

A "gifted and versatile pianist" (San Francisco Chronicle) and GRAMMY® Award winner Nadia Shpachenko enjoys bringing into the world things that are outside the box – powerful pieces that often possess unusual sonic qualities or instrumentation. Nadia's concert highlights include recitals at Concertgebouw, Carnegie Hall, Disney Hall, on the Piano Spheres and Los Angeles Philharmonic's Green Umbrella and Chamber Music Series, and with orchestras in Europe and the Americas. A passionate advocate for contemporary music, Shpachenko has premiered more than 150 new works by many of today's leading composers.

Nadia's new Reference Recordings album Keys To The Beautiful Game was released on July 17, 2026, featuring premieres of soccer-inspired pieces for piano, voice, cleats, and electronics. Described as "powerful... impressive... haunting" (Gramophone), Nadia's album Invasion: Music and Art for Ukraine features premiere recordings of music by Pulitzer Prize-winning composer Lewis Spratlan and art by numerous Ukrainian artists, with 100% of proceeds donated to Ukraine humanitarian aid. Nadia's album The Poetry of Places, featuring premieres of architecture-inspired works, won the Best Classical Compendium GRAMMY® Award. She can be heard on twelve other internationally released albums of world premieres.

Nadia Shpachenko holds a Doctor of Musical Arts degree from the University of Southern California. Her principal teachers included John Perry, Victor Rosenbaum, and Victor Derevianko. Born in Kharkiv, Ukraine, she is a Steinway Artist and professor of music at Cal Poly Pomona University.

Shortest Bio (201 Words)

A “gifted and versatile pianist” (San Francisco Chronicle) and GRAMMY® Award winner Nadia Shpachenko enjoys bringing into the world things that are outside the box – powerful pieces that often possess unusual sonic qualities or instrumentation. Nadia’s concert highlights include recitals at Concertgebouw, Carnegie Hall, Disney Hall, on the Piano Spheres and Los Angeles Philharmonic’s Green Umbrella and Chamber Music Series, and with orchestras in Europe and the Americas. A passionate advocate for contemporary music, Shpachenko has premiered more than 150 new works by many of today’s leading composers. Nadia’s new Reference Recordings album Keys To The Beautiful Game was released on July 17, 2026, featuring premieres of soccer-inspired pieces for piano, voice, cleats, and electronics. Nadia’s album The Poetry of Places, featuring world premieres of architecture-inspired works, won the Best Classical Compendium GRAMMY® Award. Described as “powerful... impressive... haunting” (Gramophone), Nadia’s album Invasion: Music and Art for Ukraine features premiere recordings of music by Pulitzer Prize-winning composer Lewis Spratlan and art by numerous Ukrainian artists, with 100% of proceeds donated to Ukraine humanitarian aid. She can be heard on twelve other internationally released albums of world premieres. Nadia is a Steinway Artist and professor of music at Cal Poly Pomona University.